With this small issue you will find a copy of the National Champs results. I hope I have managed to mention everyone who helped on the day. If I missed you out, I apologise, it seemed at one point that the whole Club had been in the hall. If you missed the event, you missed something quite special, I have had no end of complements from competitors and helpers, as well as favourable comments from national press. David Taylor, who writes for Cycling Weekly (CW) phoned me the day after to say that we had set a new standard in organization. Just this week, Karl Strugnell, a medal-contender in the Juniors' event has a letter in CW praising the Club. The editor put it in as "Letter of the Week"!
This is all due in no small part to the many offers of help from the members of this fine Club.

Nev Gregg

Nev passed away recently, after a long illness. I have only met him once. Older members will know of his racing career, I knew him as the third member of the group who were featured in “Heart of the Country” (ITV) several years ago. This was billed as a version of Last of the Summer Wine, in the days when he used to meet up with Fred Dale and Norm Sargisson at Aston Cantlow. Liz Gardner still has a copy of the video, I think.

Website – Live at last

John Clarkson has put the finishing touches to our new Website, <http://www.leafingtoncyclingandathletics.org.uk> where the latest addition is a series of photos taken at the National Champs by Seth Mayhew. Other features include race results and several articles from older issues of SPOKES.
